Existence in accounting

427

From the past to the present history never lies Unfortunately the standard of the “ideal professional”
the standard of the “ideal accountant” the standard of the “ideal leader” is white, male, cisgender, heterosexual, patriarchal

For men, higher positions
For us women, inferior positions Plural trajectories, with many pains and suffering
The woman accountant is rejected from the first moment
How much torment—undervalued underrepresented
constantly silenced?

There is sexism in companies
There is sexism in Accounting Sciences
The female voice does not echo in many coordinations
The female presence does not reach many high echelons

But we remain in the fight
Why be a woman in these spaces?
It's about insisting—
Resist
fight to exist in the accounting profession
