

INDEX

- Access, 8
- Adarand* (1995) decision, 37
- Advocacy groups, 67
- African American
 - creatives, 61
 - market, 54, 63
 - press, 59
- Airwaves, 21
- Alabama Educational Television Commission (AETC), 33–34
- American pluralism, 10
- Anti-Blackness, 79
- Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, 6
- Arab Spring, 89
- Asian-American media activism, 10

- Back-door racism, 28
- Bill, 28
- Black Efforts for Soul in Television (BEST), 28
- Black Entertainment Television (BET), 9
- Black Lives Matter, 89
- Black-cable system ownership, 10
- “Bottom up” digital enfranchisement, 89
- Broadcast consumers, 26
- Broadcast license, 24, 31
- Broadcast License Renewal Act, 29–30
- Broadcast regulation, 19
 - core features, 20
 - Broadcast segregation, 34
 - Broadcast television, 49
 - Broadcasting, 17–18, 23
 - policy, 18
 - stations, 35
 - Brown v Board of Education* (1954) decision, 66
 - Cable programming, 65
 - Civil rights activists, 18
 - Collective narrative self-determination, 76, 85
 - Colorblindness, 19
 - problem of, 35–39
 - Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 65
 - Committee of Twelve, 65
 - Committee on Civil Rights, 51–52
 - Communications
 - policy, 5
 - scholarship, 4
 - Communications Act of 1934, 36, 68
 - Congress, 19, 38
 - Consolidation, 8
 - Continuity Acceptance Radio/Television Department (CART), 52–55
 - Coordinating Council of Negro Performers (CCNP), 52, 65–67
 - Corporate liberalism, 19
 - Counter storytelling, 88
 - Critical race theory, 18
 - Cultural citizenship, 10
 - Cultural competency, 78

- Delta Sigma Theta, 55
- Democratic Party, 62
- Dis-information, 6
- Discourse of organizations, 4
- Discrimination, 51
- Discursive spaces, 6
- Disinvestment, 79
- Distress sale policy, 37
- Diversity in media ownership, 9
- Diversity initiatives, 47–48
- Diversity of tactics, 89
- Draft Bill, 30

- Education, 1–2
- Employment, 8
- Equal employment opportunity (EEO), 30

- Fairness Doctrine, 22–23, 25, 30–31
- Federal Communications Act of 1934, 20
- Federal Communications Commission (FCC), 6, 8–9, 49
- Federal Radio Commission (FRC), 20
 - equal employment opportunity requirements, 22
 - and federal courts, 23
 - privileged stations, 21
- Federal Trade Commission, 6
- First Amendment, political function of, 35
- Fraternal Order of Police, 79
- Free speech, 19

- Global Justice Movement, 89
- Global platforms, concentration of, 6
- Goldbergs, The*, 63
- Group Violence Intervention, 92

- Harlem Committee on Unemployment in Television, 65

- Heal, Empower, Atone, Restore, Transform (H.E.A.R.T.), 88
- Hispanic Media Coalition, 47–48
- Housing, 1–2

- Immigration, 1–2
- Incumbency, problem of, 24–31
- Information policy, 5
- Information society, 89
- Inside/outside perspective, 89
- Institutional theory, 67–68
- Intersectionality, 3

- Kerner Report, 35, 97

- Law, 4
- License, 20–21
- Licensees, 20
- Life with Luigi*, 63
- Looting, 78
- Lowest common denominator, 65

- Marketplace approach to regulation, 31, 36
- Mass Communication, 2, 4
- Media activism, 7
- Media advocacy, 7, 66, 83
- Media at margins, 10
- Media companies, 65
- Media Industries, 4
- Media ownership, 8
- Media policy, 2, 5, 82–90
 - approaches to, 6–8
 - fetishism, 6
 - racializing, 8–12
 - research, 2
 - subfield of academic study, 4–6
- Media Studies, 2, 4
- Media technologies, 7
- Media-based organizing initiatives, 76
- Metro Broadcasting* (1990) decision, 37
- Minority, 8
 - ownership policy, 39
- Move It Forward podcast, 88

- Narrative bloc, 92, 95–97
- Narrative condemnation, 87
- Narrative control, 88
- Narrative interventions, 80–82
- Narrative potential in conjunctural crisis, 90–91
- Narrative power, 76
- Narrative self-determination, 76
- Narrative stability, 81
- Narrative strategies, 76
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 47–48,
 52, 55
- National Association of Broadcasters, 30
- National Urban League, 56
- NBC, 9, 48
 CCNP, 65–67
 Committee on Civil Rights, 51–52 continuity acceptance radio/television department at, 52–55
 corporate structure, 50 diversity efforts/attempts, 50 diversity hiring policy, 60–62
 institutional theory, 67–68
 and integration without identification policy,
 57–60
 Joseph Baker, 55–57
 new industry bound by old ideals, 63–65
- Negro market, 53
- Neoliberal economic policies, 5
- New Deal, 22
- New Sanctuary Movement, 89
- 1940s and 1950s broadcasting, 50
- Nixon White House's Office of Telecommunications
 Policy, 30
- Occupational segregation, 61
- Occupy Wall Street, 89
- Office of Communication the United Church of Christ v.
 FCC* (1966), 26
- Organizations, 3–4
- Organized abandonment, 79
- Outside agitators, 78
- Ownership, 8
- Pastore Bill, 29–30
- People of color, 63–64, 68
- Petitions, 27–28
- Philadelphia, 76
 narrative bloc, 95–97
 narrative interventions, 80–82
 narrative potential in conjunctural crisis, 90–91
 reformulations, 91–92
 refutations, 93–95
 representations, 92–93
 Shift the Narrative and media
 policy, 82–90
 and Summer Rebellion of 2020, 76–80
- Philco TV Playhouse*, 58
- PhillyCAM, 84
- Police officers, 67
- Policy narratives, 83
- Policymaking, 6
 community, 35
- Political economy, 6
- #PracticalAbolition, 88
- Prejudice, 63
- Progressive reform, 86
- Public interest, 18
- Public safety, 83
- Race, 8, 37
- Racial contract, 19
- Racial discrimination, 17, 23, 27
- Racial formation, 3
- Racial hierarchies, 19
- Racial ideologies, 50
- Racial inequalities, 48
 in United States, 3
- Racial logics, 87

- Racialization, 1–3, 48, 68, 86
 - cases of racializing media policy, 11–12
 - causes and effects, 3
- Racialized organizations, 3–4, 8, 48–49
- Racialized social control, 86
- Racism, 2, 55, 63
 - generational experiences, 79
 - history, 37
 - institutionalized forms, 17–18
- Radio, 17
- Radio Act of 1912, 19–20
- Radio Act of 1927, 20
- RCA Baton*, 56
- Reformist proposition, 96
- Reviewing methods, 48
- Rioting, 78

- Shift the Narrative, 82–90
- Social anxiety, 80
- Social class positioning, 3
- Social movements, 7, 91
 - research, 6
- Sociology, 4
- Speech rights, problem of, 31–35
- Stability, 19
- State forces, 88
- Summer Rebellion of 2020, 76–80
- Supreme Court decision (1945), 24
- Surveillance capitalism, 5

- Taxation, 1–2
- Taxi drivers, 67

- Telecommunications Act (1996), 9–10, 23, 29, 38
- Telecommunications policy, 5
- Television Authority Committee on Employment Opportunities for Negroes, 65
- Television Code, 59
- Third Circuit Court of Appeals, 39
- TV programs, 17

- Unfinished rebellion, 94
- Urban League, 52, 55
- US broadcasting policy, 18
 - periodizing, 19–24
 - problem of colorblindness, 35–39
 - problem of incumbency, 24–31
 - problem of speech rights, 31–35
- US media policy, 19

- Violent protesters, 78

- White Americans, 19, 21
- White elite power consolidation, 87
- White racial frame, 18
- White supremacy, 79
- Whiteness, 18
- WLBT's license, 25–28
- WMAL's license, 32
- Workforce diversity, 51

- Youth Empowerment for Advancement Hangout (YEAH), 83