

INDEX

Footnotes are indicated by n after the page number

- accumulation, 207
- aggregate marginal revenue
 - curves, 88–95
- aggregate utility functions,
 - 12–13, 174
- agricultural sector, 101, 121
 - interactions, 171–84
 - isocost curves, 175–6
 - labour, 174
- analysis
 - countries' specialization, 222–5
 - econometric, 225–32
- applied economics, 211–31
- assumptions
 - commodity markets, 16
 - exports, 185
 - factor markets, 16
 - utility functions, 12
- Australia, 214, 217
- autarky, 70
 - demand, 71
 - equilibrium, 34, 48–9, 70–2
 - price, 71–3
 - solution, 43
- average terms of trade, 36, 56

- Balassa index, 220, 222–5, 227
- Barro, R.J., 199
- Batra-Seth type framework, 148

- Bhagwati, J.N., 55, 75
- boom times
 - distortion theory, 142
 - factor incomes, 178–82
 - guest workers, 112
 - illegal migrants, 141–2
 - post-tourism, 92
 - pre-tourist, 92
 - product prices, 171–84
 - relative prices, 126–30, 178–82
 - residents' welfare, 99, 108, 126–30, 178–84
 - rural regions, 163–6
 - structural adjustment, 178–84
 - three-sector model, 172–84
 - tourism, 58–9, 75–7
 - urban regions, 146, 156–63
- Brecher-type framework, 148–9
- budget constraints, 200

- Canada, 217
- capital
 - accumulation sources, 191
 - gross investment, 199
 - imported, 202
 - intensity, 134, 157–60, 164
 - labour ratios, 20–2
 - region-specific, 147

- rentals, 127
- rural regions, 164
- urban-specific, 147
- CEPII, 213, 216, 227
- coastal regions, 100–3
 - four goods model, 101
 - land rentals, 105–8
 - model alternatives, 122–6
 - pricing equations, 118
 - production, 109–12
 - residents' welfare, 108
- Cobb–Douglas production functions, 85, 199
- commodities
 - see also* non-traded goods
 - consumption, 12
 - definition, 15
 - free trade consumption, 45
 - market assumptions, 16
 - price changes, 27–9
 - price ratios, 20
- comparative advantage, Balassa index, 227
- competition
 - destination countries, 211–31
 - export earning activities, 171–84
 - OECD countries, 211–33
- competitiveness, 211–20
 - components, 215
 - definition, 212
 - destination, 215–20
 - evolution, 214–20
 - indices, 211–33
 - price, 214–20
 - services, 212
- constant prices, technical progress, 77
- consumption
 - advantage in tourism (RCARV), 226
 - consumer mobility, 15
 - demand function, 55
 - differences, 41–2
 - guest workers, 104
 - monopoly power, 51–4
 - non-concavity, 51–4
 - possibility frontier, 46, 60–5
 - possibility schedules, 47–50, 51–4
 - production differences, 50–4
 - proportional changes, 201
 - set non-convexity, 51–4
 - set non-concavity, 51–4
 - taxation revenue, 112
- contract curves, 32
- cost functions, 17, 23, 87
- countries
 - competitive positions, 217, 219
 - competitiveness evolution, 213–7
 - developed, 146, 197
 - OECD destinations, 211–33
 - real exchange rate data, 217–8
 - specialization analysis, 222–5
 - tourist dependency, 41
 - welfare, 77–81
- 'crowding out' effect, 94
- cultural heritage, 197
- database construction, 225
- demand
 - see also* domestic demand
 - consumption, 55
 - elasticities, 86
 - growth models, 187
 - income compensated, 15
 - increasing returns to scale, 175
 - regional models, 149–51
- dependency models, tourism, 41, 42–58
- derivation
 - models, 116–21, 130–2

- offer curves, 71–5
- optimal tariffs, 71–5
- taxation issues, 71–5
- destination countries, competi-
 - tiveness, 215–20
- determination
 - endogenous prices, 43, 46
 - non-traded goods equilibrium, 46–7
 - tertiary terms of trade, 78
- developed countries, 146, 197
- development/specialization
 - interface, 225–9
- differentiated non-traded
 - goods/services, 67
- disaggregation, 13
- discriminating monopolist, 89
- distortion theory, 35–8, 100, 142
- domestic demand, 87–8, 95
- domestic economies, 203–4
- domestic employment, 138, 142
- domestic rate of substitution
 - (DRS), 2
 - monopoly power, 51–3, 57
 - optimal tariffs, 74
 - production possibility curves, 34–6
- domestic rate of transformation
 - (DRT), 2
 - monopoly power, 51–3
 - optimal tariffs, 74
 - production possibility curves, 34–6
- domestic residents
 - immiserization, 129–30
 - welfare, 83–97
- downstream segment
 - specialization, 226
- DRS see domestic rate of substitution
- DRT see domestic rate of transformation
- duality relations, 25–30
- duality theories, 14
- Dutch Disease, 172(n)
- dynamics
 - growth, 185–94
 - specialization, 221–2
 - trade models, 185–94
- econometric analysis
 - models, 225–9
 - specialization, 220–32
- economics
 - applied, 211–31
 - empirical application, 211–31
- economies
 - see also* domestic economies
 - coastal, 100–3
 - foreign capital indispensable, 197
 - production, 16–9
 - three good production, 84–8
 - urban, 100–3
- Edgeworth–Bowley box
 - diagrams, 152, 161, 177
 - production possibility curves, 31–2
 - Rybczynski theorem, 27–8
- elasticities
 - demand functions, 86
 - substitution, 23
- employment
 - see also* unemployment
 - conditions, 103
 - equilibrium, 73
- endogenous variables
 - labour, 174
 - price determination, 43, 46
 - tourism, 67–81
- endowments, 18
 - nature, 67
 - theorems, 25–6

equilibrium
 demand and supply, 124–5 factor prices, 105–6
 free trade, 73
 growth models, 186–94
 increasing returns to scale, 94–5, 175–6
 outputs, 126
 steady state, 202
 estimation functions, 226
 European countries, 214
 expansion, tourism, 77–81, 171–84
 expenditure functions, 166–7,
 exports
 assumptions, 185
 demand, 205
 earning activity competition, 171–84
 exportable goods/services, 41–2
 price elasticity, 204
 relative price, 90
 taxes, 112–6
 tourism services, 212
 external competitiveness,
 definition, 212

factor endowments, 18
see also Rybczynski theorem
 theorems, 25–6
 factor incomes, 178–82
 factor intensities, 20–1 factor market assumptions, 16
 factor prices, 17, 29, 105–6, 124–5
 factor rewards, 27–9
 FDI see foreign direct investment feasibility, models, 22
 flexibility, wages, 69
 flexible prices, non-traded goods, 2

foreign capital
 growth models, 185–94
 indispensable, 197
 production, 197
 purchase, 185–94
 foreign country equilibrium
 models, 67–70
 foreign demand curves, 92–3
 foreign direct investment (FDI), 197–8
 foreign offer curves, 71, 73
 foreign rate of transformation
 (FRT), 2, 56
 monopoly power, 51–3, 57
 optimal tariffs, 74
 production possibility curves, 36–7
 four goods model, 100–3, 147–50
 four quadrant diagrams, 46–7
 free trade
 commodities consumed, 45
 equilibrium, 34–5, 49–50, 73
 monopoly power, 59
 FRT see foreign rate of transformation
 full employment
 conditions, 103
 equilibrium, 73

GDP, 216
 generalized Harris–Todaro model (GHT), 145–70
 geometric representation, GHT
 model, 150–5
 GHT see generalized
 Harris–Todaro model
 global tourism, 38
 Greece, 215
 gross investment, capital, 199
 growth
 endogenous, 198

- immiserization, 79, 181
- optimal, 197–209
- self-sustaining, 198
- steady state, 186
- taxation, 205–7
- theory, 185, 198
- tourism, 89–90
- trade models, 100
- growth models
 - demand, 187
 - dynamic trade, 185–94
 - equilibrium, 186–94
 - foreign capital, 185–94
 - long-run equilibrium, 190–4
 - Rybczynski theorem, 192
 - Samuelson framework, 186
 - short-run equilibrium, 187–90
- guest workers, 2
 - booms, 112
 - consumption, 104
 - income, 104
 - model alternatives, 122–6
 - price structure, 103
 - terms of trade, 109
 - tourism models, 99–132
 - utility functions, 101–3
 - wage rates, 104
- Hamiltonian expressions, 200, 206
- Harris–Todaro (HT) model, 100, 148
 - generalized, 145–70
 - geometric representation, 150–5
 - immiserization, 145–70
 - regional immiserization, 145–70
- Harrod–Domar model, 185
- Hausman tests, 229–30
- Heckscher–Ohlin (HO) model, 1, 46, 67, 150
 - hybrids, 172–8
- Hicksian functions, 15
- HO see Heckscher–Ohlin model
- home countries, welfare, 77–81
- home immiserization, 75–7
- home welfare, production effects, 71
- home/foreign country equilibrium models, 67–70
- homogeneity properties, 17
- homogenous of degree zero, 23
- homogenous functions, production, 44
- Hong Kong, 85
- hotel function indicator, 231
- hotel function rate, 226, 228
- hotels, 83, 85, 99
- household separation
 - assumption, 200
- hybrid HO model, 172–8
- illegal migrants, 2
 - boom times, 141–2
 - domestic employment, 138, 142
 - income, 138, 141–2
 - market clearing, 136, 139
 - model, 134–7
 - non-traded goods, 134–7
 - presence on welfare, 137–42
 - resident welfare, 133–43
 - wages, 134
- immiserization
 - growth, 75–7, 79, 181
 - Harris–Todaro model, 145–70
 - home, 75–7
 - regional, 145–70
 - residents, 99–132
 - rural regions, 146, 168–9
 - terms of trade, 109
 - tourism expansion, 171–84
 - two-country trade models, 67–81
 - urban regions, 166–8

- import duty rebates, 207
- imported capital, 202
- income
 - compensated demand functions, 15
 - guest workers, 104
 - illegal migrants, 138, 141–2
 - national, 188
 - regional, 145–70
 - residents, 104
- income per capita, 226–7, 229–30
- increasing growth, welfare, 57–8, 80–1
- increasing returns to scale, 94–6
 - equilibrium, 175–6
 - model, 172–8
 - wage rates, 181
 - welfare, 171–84
- indices, competitiveness, 211–33
- indirect utility function,
 - definition, 14
- inelastic supply
 - labour force, 69, 148
 - primary factors, 43
 - production, 43
- international passenger
 - transport, 226–9
- international terms of trade, 151
- inventory accumulation, 15
- Ireland, 215
- isocost curves, agriculture, 175–6
- isoquants, 125, 151

- Johnson, H.G., 55, 75

- Kemp, M.C., 55, 75
- Komiya model, 1–2, 43

- labour
 - agriculture, 174
 - allocation, 139
 - endogenous supply, 174
 - inelastic supply, 69, 148
 - intensity, 131, 134
 - regional models, 147
 - skilled, 136
- Lagrange multipliers, 201
- Leontief coefficients, 17
- long-run equilibrium, growth
 - models, 190–4

- manufacture
 - see also* production
 - interaction, 171–84
 - labour demand, 181
- marginal revenue curves, 87
- marginal terms of trade, 36, 56
- marginal utility, 12
- market clearing, 102
 - equations, 56
 - illegal migrants, 136, 139
 - optimal growth, 199
- Marshall tradition, 89
- Marshall–Lerner stability
 - condition, 59, 78
- Mexico, 215
- microeconomic theory, 23
- migrants see illegal migrants
- migration function, 135
- minimum wages, constraints, 36, 148
- mobility, consumers, 15
- models, 147–50
 - alternatives, 122–6
 - derivations, 116–21, 130–2
 - econometric analysis, 225–9
 - feasability, 22
 - guest workers, 99–132
 - illegal migrants, 134–7
 - increasing returns to scale
 - equilibrium, 172–8
 - three good production, 84–8
 - three-sectors, 171–84

- monopoly outputs
 - production, 83–97
 - terms of trade, 88–91
- monopoly power, 2, 36–7
 - consumption set non-convexity, 51–4
 - DRS, 53, 57
 - free trade, 59
 - FRT, 53, 57
 - optimal growth, 197–209
- multi-agent frameworks, 13
- multi-good frameworks, 15

- national income, 138, 188
- national welfare, 164
- natural heritage, 197
- nature, endowments, 67
- New Zealand, 215, 217
- non-traded goods, 15, 41–65
 - consumption goods, 198–204
 - equilibrium, 46–7
 - flexible prices, 2
 - four quadrant diagram, 46–7
 - illegal migrants, 134–7
 - market stability conditions, 141
 - optimal growth, 202
 - relative prices, 86, 108, 141, 160, 202
 - rural regions, 160
 - terms of trade, 92–3
 - trade theory, 1–2
 - urban regions, 108
- Notre Dame example, 42

- OECD destination countries
 - competition, 211–33
 - database construction, 225
 - price competitiveness, 220–2
- offer curves
 - autarky demand, 71
 - derivation, 71–5
 - foreign, 73
- one-agent frameworks, 13
- open economy model, 46
- optimal export tax, 112–6
- optimal growth, 197–209
 - market clearing, 199
 - monopoly power, 197–209
 - taxation, 205–7
- optimal tariffs, 37
 - derivation, 71–5
 - imposition, 74–5
- outputs
 - equilibrium, 126
 - movements, 22
 - resident welfare, 88–94
 - tourism booms, 178–82

- panel regression results, 229–32
- Pareto criterion, 31, 165
- partial equilibrium frameworks, 89
- passenger transport, 226–9
- POS see countries competitive positions
- possibility schedules, consumption, 47–51, 51–4
- post-tourism booms, 92
- PPPs see purchasing power parities
- pre-tourist booms, 92
- price competitiveness, 220–2
 - real exchange rates, 231
- price discrimination, 83–97
- price elasticity, export demand, 205
- price structure, guest workers, 103
- pricing equations, 118
- producers, separation
 - assumption, 200
- product prices, boom times, 171–84
- production
 - see also* manufacture
 - coastal regions, 109–12
 - Cobb–Douglas functions, 199

- consumption differences, 51–4
- contract curves, 32
- domestic demand, 95
- domestic rate of transformation, 33–8
- economic issues, 16–19
- Edgeworth–Bowley box
 - diagram, 31–2
- foreign capital, 197
- foreign offer curves, 71
- functions, 20, 173
- home welfare effects, 71
- homogenous functions, 44
- inelastically supplied primary
 - factors, 43
- monopolistic, 83–97
- possibility curves, 31–5
- relative price ratios, 45
- restrictions, 20
- rural regions, 152–3
- Rybczynski bias, 111
- shrinkage curves, 36
- urban regions, 109–12, 150–3
- profit maximization, 69
- proportional changes, consumption, 201
- purchase, foreign capital, 185–94
- purchasing power parities (PPPs), 216–7
- pure theory of trade, 41–65
- quality, specialization, 221
- quasi-public goods, 41–2, 94
- Ramsey framework, 197
- RCA see revealed comparative advantage index
- RCARV see consumption advantage in tourism
- real exchange rates (RERs), 215–20
 - data by country, 217–8
 - models, 225
 - price competitiveness, 231
- real income, 45
- region-specific capital, 148
- regional immiserization, 166–9
 - Harris–Todaro model, 145–70
- regional models
 - demand, 149–57
 - urban/rural tourism, 147–50
- relationships, 20–4
- relative prices
 - boom times, 126–30
 - consumption goods, 201
 - exports, 90
 - non-traded goods, 86, 141, 160, 201
 - production, 45
 - ratios, 22, 45
 - rural regions, 160, 164
 - tourism booms, 178–82
 - urban non-traded goods, 108
- rentals
 - capital, 127
 - coastal land, 105–8
- RERs see real exchange rates
- residents
 - see also* domestic residents
 - aggregate utility functions, 174
 - immiserization, 99–132
 - income, 104
- residents' welfare, 108–9
 - boom times, 99, 108, 126–30, 171–84
 - coastal regions, 108–9
 - illegal migrants, 133–43
 - output changes, 88–94
- returns to scale
 - capital, 204
 - demand, 175
 - equilibrium, 94–5, 175–6
 - models, 172–8

- wage rates, 181
- welfare, 171–84
- revealed comparative advantage (RCA) index, 222–5, 228
- revenue functions, 18
 - urban regions, 167
- Ricardian model, 1, 67
- rural regions, 101, 145–70
 - immiserization, 146, 168–9
 - non-traded goods, 160
 - production, 152–3
 - relative prices, 146
 - Rybczynski effect, 164
 - tourism booms, 163–6
 - unemployment, 153–4
 - wages, 148, 160, 164
 - welfare, 145–70
- Rybczynski effect, 109, 121
 - illegal migrants, 140
 - rural regions, 164
 - urban regions, 161
- Rybczynski production bias, 111
- Rybczynski theorem, 19, 25–30
 - Edgeworth–Bowley box diagram, 27–8
 - GHT model, 158
 - growth models, 192
- Sala-i-Martin, X., 199
- Samuelson framework, growth models, 186
- Samuelson reciprocity condition, 19
- self-sustaining growth, 198
- separation
 - assumptions, 200
 - household assumption, 200
 - producers, 200
 - sets, 52
- service competitiveness, 212
- sets, separation, 52
- Shephard's lemma, 15
- short-run equilibrium, growth models, 187–90
- shrinkage, production curves, 36
- Singapore, 41–2
- skilled labour, 136
- small open economies
 - duality relations, 25–30
 - two-sector general equilibrium models, 11–40
- social indifference curves, 151
- social welfare maximization, 197
- Solow model, 185–6, 188
- Spain, 185, 197
- specialization, 50–1
 - development interface, 225–9
 - downstream segment, 226
 - dynamics, 221–2
 - econometric analysis, 220–32
 - quality, 221
- specific factor model, 2
- stability conditions, non-traded good market, 141
- steady state
 - definition, 202
 - equilibrium, 202–3
 - growth, 186, 193
- stock constancy, 203
- Stolper–Samuelson theorem, 19, 25, 30, 104
 - rural regions, 161
 - theorem duality, 30
 - versions, 28–30
 - wage rates, 181
- structural adjustment, boom times, 171–84
- students, 2
- supply curves
 - see also* demand...
 - upward sloping, 24
- sustained growth, domestic economies, 203–4
- Switzerland, 215

Taj Mahal, 75
 Takayama, A., 205
 taxation
 derivation, 71–5
 optimal growth, 205–7
 revenue, 112
 two-country trade models, 67–81
 technical progress, 77–81
 constant prices, 77 temporary consumer mobility, 2
 terms of trade, 13
 average, 56
 discriminating monopolists, 89
 guest workers, 109
 immiserization, 109
 imported capital, 202
 improvements, 88–91
 international, 151
 marginal, 56
 monopoly outputs, 88–91
 negative effects, 112
 non-traded goods, 92–3
 tertiary, 78, 91
 traditional, 90
 welfare relationship, 90–1
 tertiary terms of trade, 78, 91
 theory of trade, 41–65
 non-traded goods, 41–65
 pure, 41–65
 tourism, 41–65
 three good production models, 84–8
 three-sector model, boom times,
 171–84
 TIRM see tourism density rate
 tourism expansion
 effect on welfare, 181
 immiserization, 171–84
 tourism phenomena, 67
 tourist density rate (TIRM), 229, 231–2

tourists see consumption
 trade models
 dynamic, 185–94
 growth, 100
 static, 100
 trade theory, non-traded goods, 1–2
 traded goods sector,
 urban regions, 157–60
 trading equilibrium, 45
 two countries, 71–5 traditional terms of trade, 90 transport, international passengers, 226–9
 transversality conditions, 201 travel flows, 213
 revealed comparative advantage index, 224
 Twelve Apostles (Great Ocean Road) example, 71
 two-commodity models, 11–40
 two-country general equilibrium
 models, 67–70
 two-country trade models, 67–81
 taxes, 67–81
 two-sector models
 equilibrium modification, 41–65
 general equilibrium
 models, 11–40
 variations, 198–205
 unemployment, 135
 see also employment
 rural regions, 153–4
 United States of America (USA), 213, 217
 urban regions, 100–3
 booms, 146
 capital, 147
 employment, 145–70

- expenditure functions, 166–7
- four goods models, 100
- immiserization, 166–8
- model alternatives, 122–8
- non-traded goods, 108
- pricing equations, 118
- production, 109–12, 150–3, 156–7
- relative prices, 108
- revenue functions, 167
- tourism booms, 156–63
- traded goods sector, 157–60
- unemployment, 145–70
- wage rigidity, 163
- welfare, 145–70
- USA see United States of America
- utility functions
 - aggregate, 12–13, 174
 - assumptions, 12
 - guest workers, 101–3
 - maximization, 44, 68
- visa fees, 75
- wage-rental ratios, 20–2
- wage
 - differentials, 35
 - flexibility, 69
 - guest workers, 104
 - illegal migrants, 134
 - rates, 104, 181
 - real minimum, 148
 - returns to scale, 181
 - rigidity, 163
 - rural regions, 148, 160, 164
 - urban regions, 163
- welfare
 - see also* home welfare; residents' welfare
 - domestic residents, 83–97
 - home countries, 77–81
 - illegal migrant presence, 137–42
 - increasing growth, 58, 80–1
 - increasing returns to scale, 171–84
 - national, 164
 - production effects, 71
 - residents, 108
 - returns to scale, 171–84
 - rural regions, 145–70
 - terms of trade relationship, 90–1
 - tourism, 83–97, 181
 - tourism increase effect, 181
 - urban regions, 145–70
 - world growth, 81
- world growth, welfare improvement, 81
- Young's theorem, 19