

ACROSS

1. A form of online communication that can increase student participation
4. A weather element that reminds folks of an online teaching bonus
5. Online educators often express angst about these
7. A rather new method some online instructors use to contact students
8. Called the "heartbeat" of an online course
10. Lack of this is the #1 complaint from students about online teachers
12. One type of online course delivery system
13. Technique to keep typos at bay
17. Important to develop this between online instructor and students
18. Where students and professors can meet in real time during course
20. An especially evil horror of teaching any online instructor can encounter
21. A type of support all involved in online courses sometime need
23. What students give as reason for not turning in an assignment
26. Another word to describe online teaching
28. Video software that captures audio and visual of the computer screen
29. Extras that online educators can post in their courses

DOWN

2. On what most online students focus
3. Area in the online course where most of the materials can be found
6. Describes the environment of online education
9. More than one student work on this type of assignment
11. Crucial that online educators use this to enthuse their students
14. Type of assignment feedback often used in the online classroom
15. Online course version of MapQuest
16. The #1 form of research students use for assignments
19. What many online students have difficulty managing
20. The best of these guide educators in teaching effectively online
22. The newest trend in textbooks for online courses
24. The most overlooked online resource by distance learning students
25. Use this to make personalized videos for the online class

Answer key appears on the next page.

