

Corrigendum: Exploring the application of artificial intelligence in mental health through thematic analysis

It has come to the attention of the publisher that the article Han, Q. and Zhao, C. (2025), “Exploring the application of artificial intelligence in mental health through thematic analysis”, Mental Health and Social Inclusion, Vol. ahead-of-print No. ahead-of-print. <https://doi.org/10.1108/MHSI-03-2025-0097> incorrectly stated data in two columns of Table 1:

- The text under the column header Query time “2024.5.16” should read “March 1, 2025.”
- The text under the column header Results “1,659” should read “2002.”

The publisher requests that all tables and figures are correct at submission and confirmed at article proof stage.
