

Corrigendum: The role of identification with all humanity in the relationship between social dominance orientation and intergroup anxiety

It has come to the attention of the publisher that the article, Çağış Z.G., Aksoy, Ş., Mohammed Abdullah Alkhulayfi, A., Ahmad Aziz, I., Gómez-Salgado, J. and Yıldırım M. (2025), "The role of identification with all humanity in the relationship between social dominance orientation and intergroup anxiety", Mental Health and Social Inclusion, Vol. ahead of print No. ahead of print. <https://doi.10.1108/MHSI-09-2025-0243> incorrectly listed the second affiliation of author Izaddin Ahmad Aziz.

This has now been amended from English Department, Al-Bayan University, Baghdad, Iraq, to English Department, College of Education, Bayan University, Erbil, Iraq.

The publisher kindly reminds authors to ensure that author affiliation details are provided correctly at the time of submission and carefully confirmed during the article proofing stage.
